Meeting Minutes April 2022

The Slow Boys Meeting was called to order by President Greg Roeder. About 30 members were present..

Secretary's Report: Pending Approval. Matt Hall gave the Treasurer's Report. Checking account balance was $6,703.82 and savings balance was $2867.25. Motion to approve made by Billie Conrad seconded by Addison Brown. Motion approved.

Old Business:

Picture/Coloring Book: 200 books = $1.86 per book. Allyn Kleinert motioned to approve the cost.. Billie Conrad seconded. Motion approved to create books.

Spring Tractor Drive: The drive raised $305 for the club. We had 12 tractors with 3 riders and 4 guests for lunch.

Fair Trophies: We have one quote for 1st, 2nd, and 3rd places at 18", 16" and 14" trophies for $96 per class. The quote is only good for 30 days due to uncertain fluctuations in prices. Corinne is meeting with another supplier for a second quote.

New Business:

Iroquois County Fair: The club was contacted by Emily Vaughn who is in charge of the Kid's Corner at the fair this year. The question of whether to partner with the Kid's corner to hold the kid's tractor pull was put before the club. Motion was made by Corinne Downs to hold the kids pull at the tent. but to see if partnering with them would be possible. Seconded by Lucas Krones, and approved by all.

George and June Schaaf Tractor and Truck Museum Auction: Officially held September 30th-October 1st in Frankfort, IL

Roanoke-Benson FFA Fundraiser Tractor Pull: May 28th. All rules pretty much the same. They will be allowing electric fuel pumps. They will be weighing the top 3 of each class after classes pull. Registration at 8am with Driver's meeting at 9:15am. Call Paul with questions at 309-253-1928.
